

An idealized depiction of a wetland water budget for an open water – emergent wetland similar to the central wetland at Huntley Meadows. Note that the actual water surface in the wetland is gently sloped from the surface inflow point down to the outflow.

Graphic by Dillon Conner

